

Mrs. Marjorie D. Raffield

September 26, 1926 - April 16, 2020

I sing because I'm happy,
I sing because I'm free,
His eye is on the sparrow,
And I know He watches me.

Born September 26, 1926, Marjorie Davis Raffield went to be with the Lord on Thursday April 16, 2020. Music and singing were two of Marjorie Raffield's favorite things. God had blessed her with a beautiful soprano voice and an undeniable ear for music. Her singing touched the hearts and lives of many. IN 1953, She married Reverend Buford Raffield and began her journey in ministry. He was the preacher and she was the soloist/choir director. For over sixty-five years they shared the love of Jesus throughout Laurens County and surrounding areas.

Mrs. Raffield was a graduate of Dublin High School and attended Bob Jones University. She also classes and was trained in medical records at the Georgia State Evening School in Atlanta. After finishing her training, she worked several years as a medical secretary at the veterans Hospital in Dublin.

Mrs. Raffield is preceded in death by her husband Reverend Thomas Buford Raffield, her parents John Wesley and Florence Davis, and her brothers Warren and Walter Davis. She survived by her sister Carol Davis Hollis. She has two daughters, Susan Elaine Raffield Manning (Steve Manning), Patricia Claire Raffield Saber ( Aziz Saber) an a son Steve Grant Raffield (Robyn Raffield). She has four grandchildren Matthew Manning, Meredith Manning Lawhorn ( Jamie Lawhorn), Victor Saber and Mitchell Raffield, two step grandchildren Caroline and Peyton Turknett, two great grandsons James Buford Lawhorn and John Ross Lawhorn, along with numerous nieces and nephews.

Friends and family members are invited to visit with Marjorie at the funeral home Sunday, Monday and Tuesday from 8 A.M. until 5 P.M. and a public memorial service will be held at a later date.

“ I was so very sorry to hear Ms Marjorie had passed away. I loved to visit with her at 12 Oaks. She had to show off her new romm when she moved into the "little apartment with a porch"... She was a delightful person to talk to & we had many conversations about church & Bible Study. I would bring the Upper Room each month & play bingo every Monday night until I broke my foot last summer. I cherished our talks. She was & still is a Christian lady who lived out the best example of discipleship along with her husband. May God give His peace & comfort to all the family. Theresa Flanders, Dublin, GA

“ Mrs. Marjorie was a Sweet Caring Person. Always love to visit her and Buford and hear the stories that both could tell about their past times and their growing up years. I admire how she seen after Buford in his last few years. They were an example of Pure, Sweet Love. RIP Mrs Marjorie, you are now Reunited With Buford in your Heavenly Home.
